You believe the student more likely than not committed the academic integrity violation.

If needed: Instructors should communicate with students and/or meet with them to determine if the burden of proof is satisfied.

AIO = Academic Integrity Office