Come celebrate the 30th Anniversary of the Groundbreaking at Arizona State University’s West campus during the month of February. Join community members, faculty, staff, alumni, and students during this month-long celebration that includes a faculty lecture series, pre-game tailgate party, Night of the Open Door, gallery exhibits, theater productions, kick-off celebration at Fletcher Library, and more!

Schedule of Events

30th Anniversary Kick-Off Celebration
Monday, Feb. 1 @ 3:00-4:00 p.m.
Fletcher Library
Join West campus students, administrators, faculty, staff, and community members for a cake-cutting ceremony commemorating the 30th Anniversary of the groundbreaking at ASU’s West campus.

Faculty Research Presentation
Thursday, Feb. 4 @ 3:00 p.m.
CLCC 180
The School of Social and Behavioral Sciences presents a faculty research presentation “The Brain on Trial: Groundbreaking Applications of Psychological Science to the Legal Context.” The research of ASU psychologists could change the way evidence is presented in courtrooms.

Seminar Series
Thursday, Feb. 11 @ 3:00-4:00 p.m.
CLCC 199
“Rigor and Reproducibility in the Computational Sciences” presented by Dr. Sharon Crook.
There is a new focus on reproducibility in the empirical sciences - for example the National Institutes of Health has new policies to enhance reproducibility by encouraging rigor and transparency. In this talk, we will examine resources that aid computational scientists in improving the reproducibility and validation of computational models. Additional benefits of these activities include better methods for model exchange and enhanced interoperability for different software platforms.

Thursday, Feb. 25 @ 3:00-4:00 p.m.
CLCC 199
“Just in Time Teaching: Making the Responsibility Theirs and Renewing Your Joy” presented by Dr. Marjorie Cowan, Faculty Emeriti at Miami University, Ohio.
Dr. Cowan will describe how to use Just-in-Time Teaching as a student-centered teaching approach, with the help of technology and course materials. She will discuss how these strategies can free up class time so that faculty can spend their time working with their students on the topics they struggle with the most.

Night of the Open Door
Saturday, Feb. 6 @ 4:00-8:00 p.m.
West campus
Explore ASU West’s largest open house in the signature event of the AZSciTech Festival, which offers more than 30 hands-on activities, mini-lectures from faculty, tours, and games in a family-friendly atmosphere.

Income Tax Preparation
Feb. 4 through tax season each Thursday @ 4:00-8:00 p.m. and Saturday @ 10:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m.
CLCC 238
The W.P. Carey School of Business, in cooperation with The Internal Revenue Service, the Valley of the Sun United Way, and A New Leaf, is hosting a Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) site. This VITA site will offer free income tax preparation for qualified low to moderate-income taxpayers (family income of no more than $54,000 in 2015). No appointment necessary. Returns will be prepared on a first-come, first-served basis for qualifying taxpayers.

Pre-game Lacrosse Tailgate
Saturday, Feb. 20 @ 12:00 p.m.
West campus south parking lot
Come join students for a lacrosse tailgate birthday bash full of cupcakes and fun! Attendees will have the opportunity to take a picture with Sparky and test their knowledge in an ASU West trivia game for fun prizes.
